GREENVILLE

Local Mention.

Charles McGarry was a visitor in New London Friday.

Mrs. Pierre H. Ethier and daughter were in Providence this week for two days.

Mrs. George R. Baker has been the guest of Mrs. H. S. Dowe in Danielson.

Abram Carpenter returned Thursday night after a two weeks' visit at his old home in Randolph, Vt.

William Baker and Harold Casey brought back 12 rabbits and three woodcock from a hunting trip in North Stonington Thursday.

Andrew McLaughlin is having the house on Central avenue he purchased some months ago from William L.
Woodward remodeled and extensively improved.

Dennis McIntyre left Friday night for Brooklyn, N. Y., to enter the employ of Abraham Strauss & Co. His brother James is also planning to work for the same firm.

The Greenville friends of Charles Dolaney, who was elected alderman in New York city in the Twenty-fifth district this week, are pleased to hear of his success in politics.

John Heath, Frank J. Murtha, Herbert Baker and Frank Van Dine returned Thursday night from a two days' hunting trip in North Stonington. They found a good quantity of game and had a fine time. Friday the party, with Cornelius Beetham, went hunting on Wauwecus Hill.

TAFTVILLE

Edmund Hindle Accepts Position as Designer in New Bedford—Concrete Refiging Begun on Weave Shed.

Edmund Hindle of Slater avenue, who has been for several years a designer at the Ponemah mills, has accepted a similar but more promising position at the Pierce mills in New Bedford. Mr.
Hindle has held good positions there and gone with Mrs. Hindle he will go there in a day or two, beginning work in his new place next week.

The reinforced concrete work for the first section of the sawtooth roof of the new weave shed was started on Thursday night and will be completed, and the other sections will be done as rapidly as the girders can be put up, the temporary work being done already over which the wire reinforcements are stretched, and the concrete mixed and poured.

TAFTVILLE EVENING SCHOOL
Will Open Monday Night With Everett P. Barnes as Principal.

The Taftville evening school will have its opening session of the year Thursday night at the Taftville school. The school will have the advantage of the experience of Principal Everett P. Barnes, who has been in charge of this school for several years past. He will teach the advanced studies and his assistants in the intermediate and primary classes will be Miss Grace P. Adams and Frank Wilcox. Other teachers will be added if the attendance makes it necessary.

The studies pursued this year will be as usual of general nature, suited to the needs of the pupils.

Edward Merder of Plainfield was the guest of local relatives Friday.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE UP SALVATION ARMY WORK.

Ensign and Mrs. Metcalfe arrive from Barre, Vt.

Ensign and Mrs. A. C. Metcalfe have arrived here this week from Barre, Vt., to be in charge of the Salvation Army work, taking the place of the former organ and musicians who have been transferred to Boston. Ensign Metcalfe has just come from 14 months of successful work in Barre, and has an experience of 14 years in Salvation Army work, this being his 21st appointment. The meetings will be carried on as usual at the hall at No. 45 Main street, every night except Monday, with an afternoon meeting on Sunday.

Ensign and Mrs. Metcalfe with their five children are located at the officers' quarters at No. 223 Franklin street, but upon their arrival here found the quarters very much in need of bedclothing, so that they are now anxious to get into communication with some kind friend who can assist them in their need and help a good cause.

Evangelist To Remain Another Week

Big Audience Desired It by Unanimous and Enthusiastic Vote—Dr. Stough Preaches on Leprosy a Type of Sin —Interesting Report on Flower Day.

The announcement that Dr. Stough and his associates would stay here for another week of the union evangelistic campaign was one of the features of the meeting at the armory on Friday evening. How the big congregation of 800 felt about it was shown when Dr. L. L. West asked for all to stand who wanted the evangelist to stay another week. It was a unanimous and enthusiastic vote.

Dr. Stough had been engaged to become a campaign in Ashland, Wis., on November 8, but in response to the earnest urgings of the Norwich committee the Wisconsin people have agreed to postpone their meeting until November 18, allowing Dr. Stough to remain here through the evening of Monday, November 15.

There was another gathering of converts at the meeting Friday night.
This took place in the after-meeting that was held, following the preaching service, and the seats in front of the platform were well filled with those who were touched by the invitation to come for help to God.

The big chorus under Mr. Spooner and led by the organ of Rev. Mr. Cunningham conducted a rousing song service open to the meeting.

Novely, Mr. Spooner got a group of boys who have acted as messengers to sing the chorus of hymns and songs, and then invited the big congregation to do as well as that, if you can.

In the announcements Dr. Stough spoke of his opportunity to stay longer, which was a very unusual thing for him to do, but the local executive committee had specially requested it, and the meeting must not be dropped now.

The army meeting which had been announced for Saturday night will be cancelled, but the army of the ministers, he said, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock there would be a mass meeting at the armory for young people between 12 and 20, and on Sunday night a mass meeting, which would probably be the last in the armory, as the other services next week are to be held at the Central Baptist church.

The solo, Where Will You Spend Eternity? Dr. Stough, in his sermon rendered in the fine baritone voice of Arthur L. Herring.

A report on the Flower Day work was given by Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell, the chairman on women's work. Mrs.
Mitchell's report told of numerous experiences which the visitors had had as they took the flowers to different homes, and was made so interesting that it was a burst to the heart and applause. His close, she said that the work had grown beyond the keeping of any records, so that it was impossible to say how many flowers had been distributed or how many people visited, but there had been hundreds, and they had been received with great appreciation. All the institutions in the city had been favored, and late in the day a collection of flowers was sent to the Norwich state hospital. One old lady of 91 had kissed and fondled the flowers that she received, an old lady of 91 who had received three chrysanthemums had said they were just what she needed was one for each of her rooms. The most of known anarchistic thought was so impressed that he contributed 20 cents to the work to purchase more flowers for distribution. One poor old woman whose life had been embittered for some unknown reason refused to accept the flowers, and the visitor asked for her name. The time given to the work of Flower Day on Wednesday all seemed gloriously spent.

Dr. Stough led in prayer after he read thirty requests that had been handed in. For the basis of his sermon, he read from Mark the story of Jesus healing the leper. Leprosy, he said, he believed was meant in the Bible to be a type of sin. In its stealthy and insidious entrance and gradual growth, its tainting and spoiling every drop of blood, this hideous disease was like sin. For you can't have sin in the heart, anywhere, but it comes through the intellect, the heart, the will, the affections and the life so that the whole body becomes infected. It is like sin in its sense of uncleanness and loathsomeness and that it can be communicated from one to another. There's not a leper in this city, however Christian and pure, but that is affected either directly or indirectly by every saloon, or gambling hall, or brothel that ever has continued to tolerate with your franchise.

Painting a vivid word picture of the man of Scripture whose work leprosy doomed never to cross the threshold of his home and to say good-bye to the life and loved ones, Dr. Stough said this was only a faint picture of sin. Like leprosy it is never satisfied until it has eaten its way through and through until meat and but-caricatures of what they once were. He pictured against the blasting effect of sin by relating the story of the man whose face was of so divine a mould that the painter used him for the model of Christ, but in later years when sin had had its work to do, the same man was the model for Judas Iscariot, when the artist was searching for a face evil enough to represent the betrayer.

It was the divine compassion of Jesus that reached men. He touched the leper. Poor fellow, not in years ago, he was a leper, and he was a body, but Jesus, moved with compassion, reached forth his hand and touched him. In his spirit which he needed to cut the line that he drew too sharply; between the church and men today and is one reason why the church is so little moved by the world and its temptations like Jesus, the church will reach down anywhere to any service for lost men. The touch of Jesus touched the leper, and he power to resist, and paradise begun.
Listen to him tonight saying "I will be thou clean," and let his touch bring pardon and deliverance from your sin.

THAMES LOAN & TRUST CO.
TO OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS
Practice of Banking Houses in Larger Cities to Be Tried Here for Benefit of Customers.

For the first time in the history of the city, the Thames Loan & Trust Co., which in response to repeated requests from its customers, has decided to keep open from 7:30 to 9 o'clock Saturday evenings. This practice will be started tonight, and it is for the convenience of the customers in the commercial department, who wish to protect their Saturday receipts, or for those who are saving
for the convenience of the customers in the banking business. During the evening the bank will not conduct a full banking business, but will be open for the convenience of its customers.

This has been found to meet a big demand in other cities such as Waterbury, Bridgeport, New Haven, Hartford, and Worcester, and will, no doubt, be thoroughly appreciated here. It is another of the progressive steps in this growing institution.

ST. MARY'S T. A. AND B. SOCIETY
Entertained Participants in A Summer Carnival in Fine Style.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society were the hosts Friday evening in their building on Broadway to the participants in the recent production in the Broadway theater of A Summer Carnival. In this way showing their appreciation of the work done by everybody and repaying them for the long hours spent in necessary rehearsals. The evening was spent in the dancing of the orchestra played, and a first class time was provided for all, both big and small. Light refreshments were served at the intermission two entertaining numbers were given to much applause. These were Malcolm and Hester in their classic play dancing and Miss Heffernan in a sweetly rendered solo. A feature of the evening was the Rainbow brothers, four young men who appeared on the dance floor with gaudy hosiery which was distributed so that no one wore hose that matched.
The carnival committee was in charge, comprising John Crawford, John W. Shea, Daniel Foley, John Fitzgerald, Henry Rawley, John Smith, Patrick Donohue, John Donohue, James Smith and Walter Casey.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT
Katherine Jordan of Plainfield Arrested Here Upon Complaint of Sheriff Bliven.

Acting upon request of Sheriff Bliven of Windham county, Chief Murphy sent a Policeman Irish to meet the Central Village car Friday morning, and to arrest Katherine Jordan of Plainfield, who was wanted there for embezzlement. Policeman Irish found the young woman and she was taken to the police station, where Sheriff Bliven secured a warrant for her arrest and took her back to Plainfield, where she secured bonds until the trial next Wednesday.

She stated that she lived in Plainfield and had been doing dressmaking with another woman, but knew little about the charge against her. The amount is $40.

Brought to Hospital.
Clarence Maynard, living on a farm about a mile outside of Baltic, jumped from his horse Thursday afternoon about 10 o'clock when he was struck by a piece of iron. His father re-cued him in a semi-conscious condition and he was brought to the hospital consciousness by Dr. Burr the young man was sent to the state hospital.
With the treatment he will get there it is expected he will recover. He is a widower with two children.
